

CANADIAN CENTRE FOR
ETHICS
&
CORPORATE POLICY

THE CANADIAN CENTRE FOR ETHICS & CORPORATE POLICY

TRANSPARENCY INTERNATIONAL CANADA INC.

“Who bribes whom and how often?”

Dr. A. Wesley Cragg
George R. Gardiner Professor of Business Ethics, York University,
Chair and President, TI-Canada

Mr. James P. Cooney,
General Manager, Strategic Issues
Placer Dome Inc.

Thursday, January 20, 2000, 12:00 – 14:00

The Ontario Club, Commerce Court South, 30 Wellington Street West, Toronto

What is the significance of the country rankings in Transparency International's Corruption Perceptions Index, Bribe Payers Index and Industrial Sector Ranking Index (this last due out January 20, 2000)? What are the realities with which Canadian companies are faced when they deal in some of the countries perceived to be the most corrupt in the world? Join us to discuss corruption issues facing the international business community.

REGISTRATION FORM

Please RSVP by Friday, January 14, 2000*

Name/Title: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Fax: _____ E-mail: _____

Payment enclosed ___ to follow ___. (Please make cheque payable to TI-Canada)

Luncheon fee: Members of either the Centre or TI-Canada and guests - $30
Non-members - $35

Fax to: 416-483-5128

Inquiries: Tel: 416-488-3939

E-mail: ti-can@transparency.ca/ethicctr@interlog.com

Mailing address: TI-Canada, c/o Business Ethics Office, Room 200F, SSB, York University, 4700 Keele Street, Toronto, ON M3J 1P3

*We regret no cancellations accepted after Monday, January 17, 2000. No shows will be billed. Substitutes welcome at any time.